Frequently asked questions

- To find answers to some Frequently Asked user Questions (FAQs)
- Click on the link to the FAQ page from the Help page menu, and
- A list of FAQs will appear for review

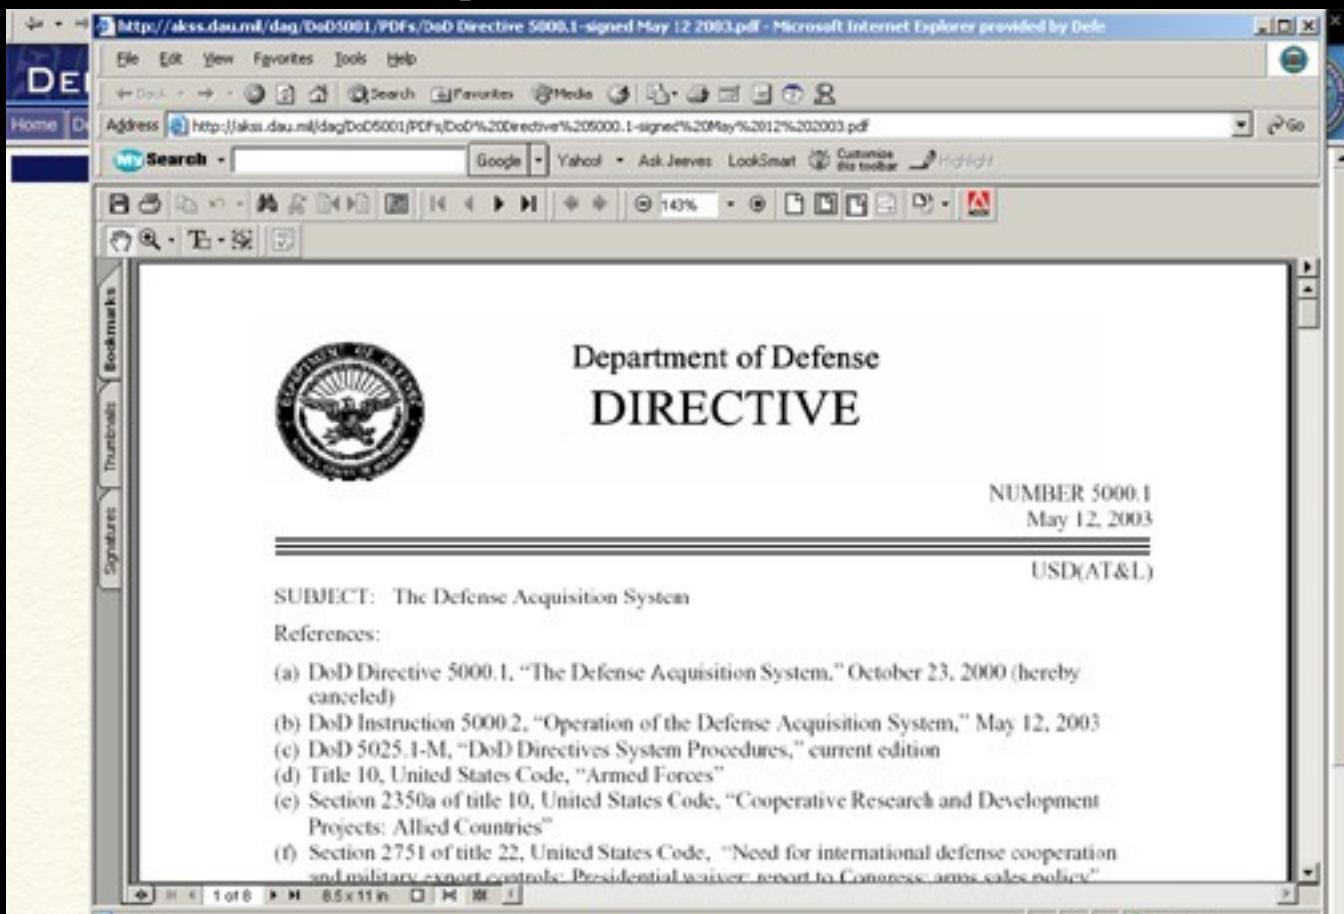

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the title 'DEFENSE ACQUISITION GUIDEBOOK'. The menu bar includes 'Home', 'Document View', 'Life Cycle Framework View', 'Functional/Topic View', 'Search', 'Glossary/Acronyms', 'DAG Resources', and 'Help'. The 'Help' menu is currently selected. The main content area is titled 'Frequently Asked Questions' and contains the following questions and answers:

- Q) What is the purpose of the Defense Acquisition Guidebook (DAG)?
A) The purpose of the DAG is to assist the acquisition workforce in using and understanding the DoD Acquisition Policies and the guidance associated with those policies.
- Q) What is the difference between the three views (Document, Lifecycle Framework, and Functional)?
A) Three views were created to assist in navigation, as well as to present the information in different ways. The Document View is for those who wish to navigate in more of a "library" style. The Life Cycle Framework View is for those who are more interested in the activities and policies associated with either a life cycle phase or a milestone review. The Functional View is for those who want to quickly review their topic of interest.
- Q) How do you navigate between the three different views?
A) You may navigate between the views by using the links on the Home page or by using the top navigational tabs.
- Q) How do you navigate between the different documents?
A) You may navigate between the documents by using the text links above the left navigation index.
- Q) How do you navigate within a document?
A) You may navigate within a document by using the left navigational index or by using the Previous and Next arrows.
